

THIRD ANGLE 2011-2012 SEASON PROGRAM

We hope you'll join us this season!

Remember—Season Subscribers save up to 25% of the price of purchasing individual tickets.

One Mississippi

Fri, Oct 21, 2011
Alberta Rose Theatre

In 2009, composer Eve Beglarian set out on a journey down the Mississippi, starting from its source at Lake Itasca in Minnesota, meeting and interviewing people she found along the way, recording the sounds of the river, writing music as she traveled, performing with and for members of the communities she found. Third Angle welcomes Eve to Portland for an evening of music, images, and stories from her journey; the Mississippi as muse to this gifted composer.

Hearing Voices

Fri, Jan, 20, 2012
Kaul Auditorium, Reed College

The next installment in our music and literature series, featuring Paradises Lost, a chamber opera by Stephen Taylor, based on the novella by Ursula K. Le Guin.

Rothko Chapel

Sat, March, 10, 2012
Kridel Grand Ballroom, Portland Art Museum
The life and legacy of Portland native Mark Rothko is celebrated with this special performance of Morton Feldman's modern musical masterpiece. This program will coincide with Portland Art Museum's Rothko exhibit. Additional events relating to this exciting work will be announced in the fall as Third Angle Ensemble and Portland Art Museum work together to celebrate Mark Rothko.

2012 Third Angle/Russell NEW IDEAS IN MUSIC COMPETITION

Thurs, Apr 26, 2012 & Fri, Apr 27, 2012
Lincoln Recital Hall, Room 75, PSU

Our inaugural event that seeks to identify and award the brightest musical minds of our time, with regional, national, and international prizes.

All concerts at 7:30 pm.
